Now that the project/program has been completed, which of the following funding priorities did the grant in fact relate to (check all that apply).

- Innovative and creative projects/programs aimed at fostering healthy conversations on racism in a community
- Projects/programs aimed at the empowerment of marginalized communities or cultivation of relationships between different communities.
- Projects/programs that seek to change the systems that cause racial discrimination (e.g., existing laws, company policies and practices)
- Projects/programs that seek to change attitudes through education, personal involvement and shared common experience
- Projects/programs that creatively deal with or address current social problems specific to a community.

Supplemental Materials

Please submit pictures, print materials, and other materials from the project/program that showcases what was accomplished. By submitting items, you give permission for the Region to use them in its publications.

Report Narrative

Your Report Narrative is a crucial part of the grant report form. Your answers enable us to share both the good work that you have accomplished AND to learn what does (and doesn't) work. Your honesty helps us be good stewards of grant funds in the future and will allow other organizations and congregations to learn from your experiences. Although we will gladly read more, each answer should be at least one paragraph.

1. What was successful/worked well?
2. What are you most proud of?
3. What lessons/new insights have you gained from doing the program/project.
4. What was not successful/did not work well? (Sometimes this is how we learn the best!)
5. What new collaborations resulted from this project? What existing collaborations were strengthened?

Please submit complete application no later than July 1st to:
