Rev. Dr. Williams is uniquely gifted to bring us a message that is both spiritual and inspirational. Religion underscores the NAACP as it is forever valiant in addressing the challenges of our past, current and future times. "The black experience is housed in the black church. The church was the only free shelter where blacks could meet to develop a sense of community and reach toward wholeness and freedom." For 105 years the NAACP remains vigilant in its mission until the promise of America is made real for all Americans.
