Week of Compassion Special Offering February 19—26, 2017

Just as you did it to one of the least of these who are members of my family, you did it to me." (Matthew 25:40)

God is most tangibly present in this world where people hunger, thirst, lack adequate clothing and shelter, and are sick or imprisoned. Christ claims as family members people who suffer.

Christ is so present in them that when you feed the hungry, care for the sick, welcome the stranger – you feed, and care for, and welcome Christ.

When you give through Week of Compassion to those who suffer from natural disasters, war, or systemic poverty, you let them know: You are here.

FOR 7 DECADES,
WEEK OF COMPASSION
HAS BEEN RESPONDING TO PEOPLE IN NEED.

REGIONAL MINISTER'S MOMENT

Rev. Dr. Teresa Dulyea-Parker

Forward Together—Faithful Witness,

One of the wonders of Regional Ministry is being able to witness the life and faith of the church in all of its manifestations. Week by week, my Associate, Scott Woolridge, and I travel around our region to different worship settings. We meet with search committees, vision teams, boards. We go to congregational gatherings and hear the stories of the church at work. Stories of faithful witness abound, as do the concerns for the “future” of our church.

Regional ministry also includes a host of committees and task groups. One is the Ministry Committee. The task of this committee is to encourage candidates for ministry and to uphold “fitness” for ministry. We have the opportunity to meet seminary students and commissioned ministry candidates. It is refreshing to hear the stories of God’s call and to witness development of leaders into that calling. There is hope in the voices we hear.

We also know we need to raise up ministers for non-traditional/bi-vocational calling/part time positions. And, the cost of education makes it almost impossible to serve part time. This is another opportunity for you to be in prayer.

As your Regional Minister, I also witness the work of the wider church. Recently, at our Disciple Divinity House/UChicago Trustees meeting I had the chance to listen to the work of the House/School in partnership with a German Theological School in Heidelberg. The students were sharing their observations. A young German theological student said that conversation about race is different in his country. There is an awareness of a traumatic genocidal history, and a deep humility based on that awareness. He told us that it was even a difficult decision to wave the German flag when the German team won the World Cup. (Imagine that.)

As I listened to his perspective, I couldn’t help but wonder in our climate of nationalism, if we have forgotten the simple humility of being followers of Jesus? As Disciples of Christ, a movement for wholeness is a fragmented world, where all are welcomed at the Table as we have been welcomed, I believe that is a particularly poignant question for us to consider. It may indeed be the question of our time. And, yet again, another opportunity for prayer.

In other news from around the region . . .

A reminder: our Study and Discernment Committee has held conversations around the region in an effort to bring clarity to our Vision as a regional church. The fruit of clear vision will be an opportunity to structure and staff for where God is calling us to be present in mission for our changing world. We will be in retreat on Feb. 10-11. Prayers please!

And, we welcome the Rev. Hyoung Chel "Tom" Yang as our CCIW NAPAD Pastor. Tom is working with our Asian Disciple congregations and coordination with NAPAD. (North American, Pacific Asian/ Island Disciples). Tom can be reached at tyang@cciwdisciples.org.

We have two Interim contract staff to help with specific ministries. Rev. Dr. Beth Rupe, Disciple Women's Ministry, bethr@cciwdisciples.org; Rev. Tim Akers, Regional Youth Council and Youth Committee; tim@cciwdisciples.org.

You can follow all the news of the region by subscribing to our weekly eNews. Visit our website at cciwdisciples.org to subscribe.

P.S. It is important for you to know that currently we have 22 congregations in the process of search and call. Each situation is unique with its own set of challenges. Many are part time positions. Many are in struggling communities. Finding candidates willing to serve can be a challenge. This is one opportunity for you to be in prayer for your neighbor congregations.

Open Invitation for New Day in the New Year!

Let's begin the new year with a fresh start. It's a time of new beginnings, a time of transformation – in our personal spiritual journey and in our congregation.

Begin this journey, this New Day, with us.

On Saturday, February 18 (10 am to 3 pm), you're invited to join us at Carlock Christian Church in Carlock, Illinois. Ruth Fletcher, the Disciples Regional Minister in Montana will be with us to talk about nurturing the lives of congregations.

Ruth is held in very high esteem by her colleagues and also works as a contract staff person for Hope Partnership in Indy, specializing in transformational ministries.

She is the author of Thrive: Spiritual Habits of Transforming Congregations. It is available at Amazon in paperback and electronic formats. In addition to making a compelling case for congregational transformation, her book is rich resource of practical tools (12 appendices). You will love it!

We're very excited to have Ruth with us.

If you're ready for a spiritual boost in the company of like-minded folks, please join us.

Also, mark your calendars for July 28-30 for a New Day retreat at Lake Williamson. This experience will provide an introduction to New Day and making a fresh start in 2017.

Many of the congregations currently involved in New Day will also be there. You'll hear how they have grown through learning more about spiritual practices and drawing close to God and one another.

Watch the CCIW E-news and our website for more information. You can also contact Scott Woolridge – scott@cciwdisciples.org.

He'd be delighted to talk with you about what New Day can do for you in the new year!

Women's Spring Gathering

Freedom: Promise and Struggle

With the holidays behind us, it is time to look ahead to what 2017 offers us.

All women of the church are invited to attend the Spring Gathering at the Chiara Center, 4849 La Verna Road Springfield, IL on Saturday, March 25, 2017 from 10 AM - 3 PM. The theme of the day will be Freedom: Promise and Struggle, with the focus being on prayer and prayer disciplines. The Rev. Dr. Marti Steussy will be speaking on the Psalms and those attending will have opportunities to explore a variety of prayer disciplines in the afternoon. The day will provide an opportunity to connect with God and other women of the Christian Church (Disciples of Christ) in Illinois and Wisconsin as we worship, learn and fellowship together. Information will be provided about new Disciples Women resources, learning and mission opportunities.

Our Keynote speaker will be Reverend Dr. Marti J. Steussy is the Professor of Biblical Interpretation emerita at Christian Theological Seminary. She is a Biblical Storyteller who brings extensive knowledge of the Bible, Dr. Steussy has published or edited numerous works including Samuel and His God (U of South Carolina Press, 2010), David: Biblical Portraits of Power (USC 1999), Psalms (Chalice Commentary for Today series, 2004), The Chalice Introduction to the Old Testament (2003), Gardens in Babylon: Narrative and Faith in the Greek Legends of Daniel (Scholars Press 1993), and two science fiction novels, Forest of the Night and Dreams of Dawn (Del Rey 1987 and 1988). She was a translator for the Common English Bible project (Eerdmans, 2011), has written and edited notes for CEB study Bibles, and written and published numerous essays and articles. Since her retirement in 2014, Dr. Steussy has continued to teach at the seminary part time. Her teaching portfolio includes classes on forgiveness. She has also hiked the Camino de Santiago de Compostela in Spain and parts of the Kumano Kodo (a Japanese pilgrimage trail), completed a two-year certificate in Self Psychology with the Center for Religion and Psychotherapy of Chicago, and memorized the Sermon on the Mount in Greek. She and her husband Nic (a biochemist at Purdue University) have two adult children and a cat.

Additional Speakers

Additional conference speakers will include: Reverend Cheryl P. Jackson and The Reverend Dr. Beth Rupe. prayer workshop leaders will include: the Reverend Melissa Embken, Reverend Tracy Siegman, Karen Moore and Susan Larkin.

The Rev. Cheryl P. Jackson serves as Senior Pastor of United Christian Church of Country Clubs Hills. She is the former Moderator of CCIW. An educator, Rev. Jackson was a full time college professor and Health Information coordinator at College of DuPage in Glen Ellyn, IL. She is married to Rev. Larry Jackson.

The Rev. Dr. Beth Rupe has served congregations in Kentucky and Illinois. She currently lives in Bloomington, IL and serves as Regional Elder to the McLean Livingston congregations. Co-facilitator of the CCIW Pro-Reconciliation and Anti-Racism Team, and is on the Regional Church Council and Women's Cabinet. She writes Prayer Stations and the quarterly study guides for Just Women. She has written congregational resources for Disciples Home Ministries. She is married to Mark. They have two adult children and two granddaughters.

Program

Participants will explore and reflect on the biblical text with Dr. Steussy. They will hear Rev. Jackson speak of her experience desegregation when she was in LA and the strength she derives in praying the Psalms. Participants will explore a variety of ways of praying as they interact with prayer station leaders. Women clergy are encouraged to come Friday and spend the night at the Chiara Center.

Blessings Box

Remember to bring your Blessings Box offering which is used to support Disciples Women Ministries' locally, regionally, and internationally.

Registration Information

Cost of the event is $35.00 with a February 1, 2017 postmark and $45.00 thereafter. Registration forms are available on the Regional website www.cciwdisciples.org and in the regional mailing that will be distributed early in February.

Open Hands, Willing Hearts

Embodying God's Love in the World

A Shalem eCourse with Patience Robbins

Act justly, Love tenderly and Walk humbly with your God. (Micah 6:8)

Dear CCIW Community:

I am writing to you because of an opportunity for spiritual deepening that is available this coming Lent. As many of you know, I am involved in the work of the Shalem Institute for Spiritual Formation (shalem.org) in Washington, DC. For over 40 years, Shalem has been guiding people on their spiritual journeys with programs that open their minds and awaken their hearts. I am delighted to be partnering with Shalem Institute for Spiritual Formation to offer a six-week course, beginning in March, with in-person and online components. Recognizing and living into one's call is a lifelong process of discernment. Our time together will invite you to look at your life, no matter what age, and notice your unique contribution to God's vision.

The course will run for six weekly sessions. The course will run from Sunday, March 5 through Sunday, April 9, 2017. You will also be able to access the online material for two weeks after the course ends.

Each week, you will receive a Sunday email with a link to new course material online. You will be able to listen to the audio stories and guided meditations as many times as you wish throughout the week from your home computer. There will also be opportunities for journaling personally and optional shared journaling online with the larger eCourse community. On Thursdays, you will receive an email to check in around the course material from that week.

All online material is designed to support your daily practice, which is the most important component of the course. There is no homework, mandatory lessons, readings, or writing. Below is an overview of the topics covered each week:

Week 1: What is Mine to Do?

Week 2: Calling to Embody Love

Week 3: Natural World

Week 4: Role Models

Week 5: Challenges and Underlying Gifts

Week 6: Review and Reflection

Each week includes an audio recording sharing stories of discernment, a guided meditation, and an engaging reflective exercise with journaling questions.

More information about the online component of the course can be found on the Shalem website here: <http://shalem.org/programs/online/open-hands-willing-hearts/>

As well as the online course, we will have an opportunity to have a more personal connection with each other. Depending on how many of us from CCIW there are I will set up an online or location gathering so that we might share together what has been happening as we have gone through this program.

With this partnership with Shalem, I am able to offer you this six-session online and in-person experience for $50, if we have a group of 10 or more. If we have less than 10, but more than 3 that cost will be $68. The regular cost of the program is $75.

To Register: Please send me your payment and contact information before February 22, 2017. See my info below.

Please provide your contact information below and please carefully check the information, especially the email:

Godly Play Training Coming to Central Illinois

On March 10-12, 2017 Eureka Christian Church (DoC), Eureka, IL will be hosting a CORE Godly Play training.

WHAT IS GODLY PLAY?

The result of a lifetime of research and practice by theologian, author and educator the Rev. Dr. Jerome Berryman, the Godly Play® method is a curriculum of spiritual practice exploring the mystery of God's presence in our lives. The Godly Play curriculum engages what is most exciting about religious education: God inviting us into—and pursuing us in the midst of—Scripture and spiritual experience. Godly Play practice teaches us to listen for God and to make authentic and creative responses to God's call in our lives.

Godly Play is a creative, imaginative approach to Christian formation and spiritual guidance.

Godly Play has a Montessori foundation with 40+ years of research and practice.

Godly Play values process, openness, discovery, community and relationships.

Godly Play models the worship life, stories, symbols and rituals of Christian congregations.

Godly Play allows practitioners to make relevant and personal theological meaning.

Godly Play nurtures participants to larger dimensions of belief and faith through wondering and play.

To register, go to <http://www.godlyplayfoundation.org/godly-play-training/>. For additional information, contact Rev. Amy Sue Johnson at 309-467-2369 or at education@eurekachristian.org.

youth ministry

Greetings Brothers & Sisters,

I hope this letter finds you well and surrounded by the warmth of the Holy Spirit. My intention with this letter is to reach out to all youth leaders in our churches throughout the region.

I am currently serving as the CCIW Interim Regional Youth Director. One of the goals for our region, regarding youth ministry, is to begin a youth ministry network. With this network in place it can serve as a resource for anyone serving in youth ministry. It will allow individuals to share specific resources they find helpful. It will be a way to share things you are doing with your youth group and in the local community. You will be able to ask other youth leaders how they handle different situations and issues that arise in the life of young people and when serving in youth ministry. The list of possibilities are endless.

Within our region we have a wealth of knowledge and experience of how to do youth ministry. Having said that, there is not one way to do youth ministry. This is why I feel it is important for us to have this network and create a line of communication and sharing.

If you work with youth in your congregation and would like to be a part of the youth ministry network please provide us with your contact information (name, church, email, phone number). Please pass this along to anyone who has a passion for work with youth as they travel this on this spiritual journey we call life. Please send your contact information to Peggy O'Neal at peggy@cciwdisciples.org or Tim Akers at tim@cciwdisciples.org.

We are in the beginning stages of creating the youth ministry network and can not tell you what it will look like. We can tell you, it will happen.

God bless you and your ministry. I hope to see you soon!

Peace & Love,
Tim Akers

Branching Out in 2017

Hey everyone! It's that exciting time of the year where we begin to receive information about camp. If you're like me, you begin dreaming about what camp will be like, who you'll see, and where you spiritually end up by week's end. I know this is said every year, but I know those of you who attend camp every year know it's true, you do not want to miss camp this year!

This year our theme is branching out, now what does that mean? It means getting out of your comfort zone, it means taking risks, it means being open, honest and real with one another, and it means opening yourself up to the challenges and exciting adventure God has you on. Camp for a lot of us is a place where we can hear God the clearest, it is a place for some that sets the tone for the whole year and the lessons we learn there will help us in the future. Camp is a great place, but at the end of the day we must realize it's just a place, it's the people, conversations, and experiences that make camp so great. I've heard some people say, "camp is the one place where they can connect with God." Hearing that I am filled with joy but also pain. I experience joy because I know a connection has been made, but I experience pain because I know there is nothing going on beyond camp that is maintain that connection, or they aren't connecting with God in other places.

Branching out is about maintaining that connection throughout the year. Keeping connected to God and to our camp support system. Campers, you make new friends every year, you have a new small group every year, just because camp ends it doesn't mean you lose that support from your small group, your camp, or your directors and counselors. We're all here for you! This year's camp is about stretching your limits, loving others where they are and for who they are. It's about looking with our hearts and not our eyes, seeing that everyone is a child of God.

If you're looking for a place this summer to spend your time, spend it at one of our camps this summer. Camp Walter Scott and Pilgrim Park have great facilities, great staff, and a great love for their campers. Camp dates are posted on the regional website as well as the camp Facebook page. If you're 18 years or older, contact me. I'd love to get you involved in our camps as a counselor. If you're over 22 years of age and have a passion for camp ministry and would like to direct, contact me! We'd love to share in your gifts. We have a lot of opportunities to serve in our outdoor ministry program. I'd like to end with a challenge to all the churches out there. I challenge you to make a big deal about camp this year, get your youth excited about camp and get them registered. I'd also like to challenge every church in our region to get a group together to come and work at Camp Walter Scott the week of June 4-10, to get our facilities ready for our campers. Let's dedicate ourselves to the ministry of our youth in this region.

Sincerely,
Jared Reno

Jim Wallis Speaks:
America's Original sin & Braving the Beloved Community
Friday April 7, 2017
1:00 p.m.
Becker Auditorium Eureka College

The Pro-Reconciliation Anti-Racism Team is pleased to announce that the Region along with Eureka College, the Presbytery of Chicago of the Presbyterian Church USA and Quad City Interfaith will be co-hosting Jim Wallis Speaks: America's Original Sin and Braving the Beloved Community with Jim Wallis on April 7, 2017 at 1 PM at Becker Auditorium at Eureka College in Eureka, IL.

Mr. Wallis who is President and Founder of Sojourners, editor and chief of Sojourners magazine, a best-selling author with twelve books to his credit, public theologian, speaker and international commentator on ethics and public life will be speaking on his book America's Original Sin: Racism, White Privilege, and the Bridge to a New America.

Following Mr. Wallis' address, there will be a panel response. Our panelists will include: Jessica Vazquez Torres, National Organizer, Crossroads Antiracism Organizing & Training, Prairie Rose Seminole, Program Director, American Indian Alaska Native Ministries, and Nayoung Ha, Organizing Director, Korean American Resource and Cultural Center. There will also be time for questions and a reception where the conversation may continue.

We hope that you will mark your calendars and plan to be a part of this important conversation where we confront the sin of racism in our nation, consider how to build bridges and seek to live reconciled lives as a part of the beloved community.

While this event will be free to those attending, you will need a ticket. Register on the CCIW website. Registration deadline is April 4.

Honduras Missionaries Don and Maryjane Westra

Don and Maryjane Westra, who are serving in Honduras, are available to speak in the WI Conference and CCIW IL/WI Region March 5 – April 3, 2017. They have just finished four years of service in Honduras and have many wonderful experiences to share. They travel in their camper so they have less need for housing – but do need an occasional shower and a place to park. They have friends and relatives in Wisconsin and northern Illinois and love the region and hope to spend some time with all of you.

Global Ministries will be responsible for their transportation to the region and conference, and we request that the receiving congregations provide housing (with these adaptations), meals, and local transportation.
