

ACT Now! Unite to End Racism

anyone who wants to take a stand against racism is welcome

In observance of the 50th anniversary of the assassination of Martin Luther King Jr.

Bus trip - leaving Tuesday, April 3 to rally on the mall in Washington DC on April 4. Returning on Thursday, April 5.

Registration deadline midnight on March 1. Three locations: Suburban Chicago, Springfield and Carbondale (exact location to be announced soon)

Approximate departure times on April 3
Suburban Chicago: 5 p.m.
Springfield: 3:30 p.m.
Carbondale: 3:30 p.m.
Approximate arrival time on April 5.
Suburban Chicago: 6 a.m.
Springfield: 7:30 a.m.
Carbondale: 7:30 a.m.

ACT!
NOW!
UNITE TO END RACISM

Register online using the events tab on the ICC website www.illinoisconferenceofchurches.org. $175 includes t-shirt, nonperishable sack lunch and bottle of water. Please note additional buses will be added if there are enough registrants. Buses will be filled in increments of 56. You will be notified by email if you have a seat. You will also be notified if you are on the waiting list. If we can't accommodate you, you will receive a refund. No other cancellations or refunds will be honored - if you can't attend please find someone to take your seat. There is a restroom on the bus. There will be a few 15-minute comfort stops. We will stop for breakfast and supper on April 4 only - cost not included in trip. We respectfully ask you to wear your t-shirt on the outside of your clothing at all times while on the mall.

Buses arranged by the Illinois Conference of Churches
Rally sponsored by the National Council of Churches

Questions? Contact Laurie Vial, Executive Director, at laurie@illinoisconferenceofchurches.org

Illinois
Conference
of Churches

www.illinoisconferenceofchurches.org